ABOUT EXIT THEATRE

EXIT Theatre has been operating since 1983, when Artistic Director, Christina Augello began staging plays in the lobby of a Tenderloin residential hotel. Since then, we've expanded into five intimate venues ranging in size from 25 – 80 seats. In addition to providing a home for emerging and independent theatre artists and companies, EXIT annually produces a full season of performances with resident artists and designers, and the San Francisco Fringe Festival—the oldest grassroots theatre festival in the Bay Area, and the second oldest Fringe in the US.

DONATE TO EXIT

EXIT Theatre is a not-for-profit organization and is always accepting tax-deductible donations, through PayPal, or through the mail, at 156 Eddy Street, SF, CA, 94102. You can also donate the stuff you don't want anymore to Community Thrift at 623 Valencia Street and ask the proceeds to benefit EXIT Theatre (#118).
