WHO WE ARE

The School of Theatre & Dance is an inclusive learning environment that promotes creativity and mirrors the wide range of cultural, artistic, and scholarly interests in the San Francisco Bay Area.

WHAT WE OFFER

- Professional training in Theatre Arts and Dance
- Opportunities in performance, design, and production
- Engaged faculty and dedication to student success

Theatre students can choose to pursue focused coursework in performance, design, technical production, play development, dramaturgy, or musical theatre.

Dance students can choose to pursue focused coursework in performance/choreography or in dance studies.

Many of our courses can be taken by students from other programs to fulfill GE requirements!
